

1982 Founded in Taiwan by Jimmy Chen, Jack Chiang and Eric Chao to produce fashion footwear for US retail customers

1991 Commenced China operations with the establishment of the Stella Footwear Factory in Dongguan, China

1995 Established Seville Footwear Factory in Dongguan, China for leading brands including Clarks, Timberland and Wolverine

1998 Entered into an exclusive supply arrangement with Golden Star Company Limited for the manufacture in Vietnam

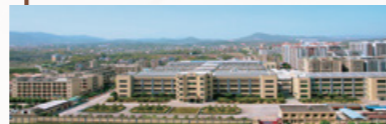

1999 Established Selena Footwear Factory in Dongguan, China for expansion into premium women's footwear

2004 Developed and manufactured footwear for high-fashion brands

2006 First factory dedicated to Nike in Hunan, China commenced production

2007 6 July 2007: Listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited

2010 Diversified into inland China

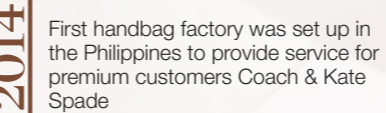

2012 Expanded our casual footwear production in Indonesia

2013 Began manufacturing in Bangladesh at Bay Footwear Ltd

2014 Established footholds in the Philippines to expand our footwear production in South East Asia

First handbag factory was set up in the Philippines to provide service for premium customers Coach & Kate Spade

2018 Factory dedicated to sports footwear in Vietnam commenced production for Nike

2019 Concluded smooth management succession with Lawrence Chen appointed Chairman and Chi Lo-Jen appointed CEO

2020 Consolidated R&D operations to enhance product design and development capabilities and innovation

Unveiled Phase II of the sports-footwear-dedicated factory in Vietnam

2021 New footwear factory in Solo, Indonesia, commenced operation

2023 Launched the Group's first Three-Year Strategic Plan (2023-2025)